

Parts That Are Mentioned In The Standard

1. Nose – Dark black or brown depending on the coat color
2. Eyes – Large, dark, round, set well into skull, forward looking, (meaning not slanting on the sides of the head).
3. Stop – moderate
4. Back skull – broad, relatively flat
5. Ears – pendant, set on slightly above eye
6. Neck – slight arch
7. Shoulder blade – well laid back
8. Height – 12" – 13" at withers
9. Topline – level
10. Tail – carried in a cup handle fashion
11. Loin – Short strong
12. Tail set – set high
13. Pelvis – pelvic bone projects beyond 30 degree angle
14. Hocks – well let down
15. Rear pastern – perpendicular
16. Stifle – Well bent
17. Tuck up – slight
18. Coat – The untrimmed coat is long, soft in texture with a slight wave. Any shaping, scissoring of the long coat is a
19. Brisket – level with the elbow
20. Elbow – close to the body
21. Foreleg – more round than oval
22. Front pasterns – short, slightly bent
23. Feet – arched with deep pads
24. Bone – Strong and sturdy
25. Upper arm – Equal length to shoulder blade
26. Fore chest – Measuring point
27. Neck – Good length
28. Lips – Tight and dark
29. Teeth – scissor, complete dentition, large and well-spaced
30. Muzzle – measurement from nose to stop is approximately 2/3 of the measurement from stop to occiput.

PARTS OF THE LOWCHEN THAT RECEIVE MENTION IN THE STANDARD

the set of the tail at an approx.

rather dense and moderately trim other than specified or disqualification.